

LION QUIZ

- 1) The male lion's chief role is:
A) to rear young B) to hunt C) to protect the pride's territory and female from other males
- 2) The male lion is what % larger than the females?
A) 25% larger B) 50% larger C) 100 % larger
- 3) The males mane is thought to:
A) protect his neck when fighting B) make him look bigger than he is
C) both of the above
- 4) Lions live in prides made up mostly of:
A) males B) unrelated females and cubs C) related females and cubs
- 5) The weakest male of a pride:
A) ranks below the cubs B) has no rank at all C) ranks above the females
- 6) A lion can run:
A) 36 mph B) 20 mph C) 51 mph
- 7) The most important way for lions to communicate is the pride is by:
A) hissing and spitting B) growling C) having body contact
- 8) Lions have a rough tongue which is good for:
A) grooming B) getting the meat off of bones C) both of the above
- 9) At the kill:
A) females eat first B) cubs eat first C) cubs eat last
- 10) Why do many cubs die before they are 2 years old?
A) they starve because they can't compete for food
B) They are often abandoned by the pride
C) Female lions are usually poor mother

1) C 2) A 3) C 4) C 5) C
6) A 7) C 8) C 9) C 10) A